

Katie Stebbins is the newest addition to the Mass Mentoring Partnership team, now serving as Director of Western MA Partnerships. As a member of MMP's senior management team, she will maintain, strengthen, and expand strategic relationships in the region, as well as mobilize internal and external resources to best meet the needs of the mentoring community and work with partners to grow the field in Western Mass.

